2 Game rules

Introduction: This tournament is surely not the World cup and both all of us had our moments of glory but many years ago. Our mission (all of us) is about making this event a success, a moment of friendship and good fun and through this, an occasion to promote the fundamental values of our sport.

So we trust in everyone to demonstrate our fair play and self control skills and just ask the refs to give some help to any victim of nervous breakdown (even light) by inviting him to have a few minutes rest on the bench.

2.1 Teams

- 15 a side on the pitch and as many substitution you wish
- Players: 35 years old minimum. No maximum
- 3 players under 35 are allowed within the group of 15 players. These three can not play/ run more than 10 meters with the ball
- The elder who wish to be « protected » (no hard tackle or any other tough rendez-vous) will have to tell the organisation and wear a different colour shirt to be recognised easily by other players (according to French federation rules)
- Each player will have to have their playing licence valid for insurance coverage purpose and it will be the responsibility of each team captain to make sure that this is the case before each game of the day.
- A simplified game form will be filled before each game

2.2 Games rules

- According to UFAR rules (<http://www.ufar.biz/blog/>)
- 1X10 mn per game
- Scummage NO push, ball goes to the side throwing in
- No kicks allowed out of the 22 yards area (Home side)
- Kicks authorised only in case of free kick or penalty (but no attempt to posts allowed)
- Number of substitutes and substitution free

2.3 Organisation of the compétition

- 1 or 2 groups of 10 teams
- Each team plays against all other teams in championship (9 matches)
- Points granted
 - o Win : 4 pts
 - o Draw: 2 pts
 - o Loss : 0 pt
 - o 1 bonus point for 4 tries or more in a game.
- In case of dead heat at the end of group games the following criteria will be considered to rank the teams the number of tries.
- If 2 sides are still "equals" after review of this criteria that is the result of the game they played against each other which will be considered, following the same process.
- All games will be conducted by official referees from the Ile de France Committee.
- 1 trophy for the most fair playing team and a trophy for the oldest player

*ButAt the end of the day , who cares about the result ?
The only important thing is about having great time and good fun
ALL TOGETHER !!!*
