Mantova

«A town shaped as a palace»: this apt quotation by Baldassarre Castiglioni suggests in the best possible way the charm and the beauty of Mantova. Being small and well designed, Mantova is above all an original mixture of art and history. The town establishes itself to the visitors as an art treasures basket which famous artists filled with precious masterpieces. Artists such as Mantegna, Pisanello, Giulio Romano, Leon Battista Alberti, and many other artists, painters, architechts added to its undisputed cultural rank. Since 7th July 2008 Mantova and Sabbioneta are the 42nd Italian Unesco World Heritage Site.
